

Personal Injury Case Study 5

Helen Marshall acted for Mr C of Leeds who was waiting to cross a road when a belisha beacon fell onto his head.

As a result, Mr C suffered a laceration to his scalp, headaches, impaired memory and concentration along with a soft tissue injury to his neck and consequential erectile dysfunction.

Conclusion

Liability was admitted quickly and medical intervention brought about resolution of the symptoms. The case settled for £32,500.00.
